SCHOOL REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 1, 1909.

In submitting our annual report, we will say that we believe our schools to be in a good and efficient condition.

Six schools have been supplied with teachers who have had many years of experience, and of this number three have had Normal training.

As it practically impossible at the present time to secure experienced teachers for all the schools, we have been obliged to employ beginners for the two remaining schools, but they have been selected from our own town and we think their work has been all one could reasonably expect.

Our brief experience in the employment of a vocal music teacher has already demonstrated the value of such service. Under the instruction of Mrs George H. Gale a thoroughly competent teacher, remarkably good progress has been made, when we consider the limited time she has had the children in her charge.

It has proved to be a study in which the children have taken a great amount of interest and as the expense has been very reasonable, we hope it may be continued the coming year.

We have expended the amount the law allows for repairs. The Shaker school house has been provided with new desks and minor repairs have been made to nearly all the other houses.

We find by the enumerating officer's report an increase of twelve pupils in town from the report of the previous year. This condition is very gratifying for the number of scholars has been steadily decreasing for a number of years

At Kezer seminary thirteen pupils have been accommodated. Here we found an experienced teacher who maintained good discipline. The very excellent average attendance at this school proves that the scholars were interested in their work and we think the year past has been a profitable one at this institution.

We wish to express our gratitude for the earnest, faithful work of the teachers. We think that while the condition of the schools is good, there is yet an opportunity for increased efficiency and steady advancement in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK L. BROWN,
Chairman of School Board.
